A handwritten musical score on a single page, numbered 44 in the top right corner. The score is written in ink and consists of several staves. The top staff is a vocal line, likely for a soprano or alto, with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). It begins with a series of eighth notes, followed by a half note, and ends with a fermata. Below this staff, the lyrics "Ah, que la victoire a de charmes, faisons tout retentir du suc" are written in a cursive hand. The following staves are piano accompaniment, with a bass clef and a key signature of one sharp. They feature a variety of note values, including eighth, quarter, and half notes, and are separated by vertical bar lines. The score continues with several more staves, some of which are empty, suggesting a continuation of the piece. The handwriting is elegant and typical of 18th or 19th-century musical notation.
